

UNIWERSYTET
KARDYNAŁA STEFANA WYSZYŃSKIEGO
W WARSZAWIE

CRIME VICTIM IN THE EU AND U.S. LAW-MAKING PROCESS – science conference

June 12, 2019 R.

9.30 – 10.00 Registration, welcome coffee

10.00 – 10.10 Opening remarks

10.10 – 10.40 The influence of lobbying groups and the media on the law-making process in the US, selected examples of offenses to the detriment of minors and crimes of human trafficking

Prof. Hank Nuwer
Franklin College, Indiana

10.40 – 11.00 The scope of the right of petitions in the United States and the European Union

Dr Wojciech Kwiatkowski
Faculty of Law and Administration, Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University

11.00 – 11.30 The civic factor in the legislative process in the European Parliament

Dr hab. Karol Karski
Member of the European Parliament, Chairman of the Scientific Council of the Institute of the International Law, Faculty of Law and Administration, University of Warsaw

11.30 – 12.00 Coffee break

12.00 – 12.30 The role of the European Parliament in shaping the European substantive and procedural criminal law

Adw. Georgi Gruew

12.30 – 13.00 Crimes against sexual freedom of minors and decency - dogmatic and legal considerations against the background of the Polish Penal Code

Dr Konrad Burdziak
Faculty of Law and Administration, Uniwersytet Szczeciński

13.00 – 14.00 Lunch

14.00 – 14.30 Selected new tendencies in the fight against crimes against human trafficking and crime to the detriment of minors

Mł. insp. Michał Grzelec
Head of the Department for Combating Human Trafficking, General Police Headquarters

14.30 – 14.45 Anonymization of the crime victim - practical aspects

Mjr Tomasz Nowak
Operational and Investigative Board, General Border Guards Headquarters

15.15 – 16.00 Anonymization of the crime victim from the point of view of the rights guaranteed to the parties to the criminal process

Adw. Stefan Jaworski

16.00 Conclusions of the conference